

In addition to the «Expert tasting» and «Public tasting», the expert jury will estimate different beer and beer-based samples in various packing, represented at the Russian market.

For this purpose, together with Consumers' Right Protection Union, according to the "lottery" rule, two brewing companies, providing their products for free to the Expert jury for estimation of organoleptic characteristics and also to "Weihenstephan" of the Technical University of Munich for evaluation of physical-chemical and microbiological parameters, will be selected annually.

Results will be sent to representatives of the federal and regional mass media, "ROSPOTREBNADZOR", other Government authorities and also will be placed on the websites www.rosglavpivo.com, www.barley-malt.ru, www.8prav.ru.
